MAKING SINGLES DEBUT IN THE FED CUP FINAL

- 2018 Sofia Kenin, a week before turning 20, was one of three U.S. players making their debut in the 2018 Final vs. the Czech Republic in Prague. Kenin was called upon to lead the defending-champion Americans vs. the Czechs and competed admirably, but fell twice in singles, to Barbora Strycova, 6-7(5), 6-1, 6-4, and Katerina Siniakova, 7-5, 5-7, 7-5, in a 3-hour, 44-minute battle that clinched the Czechs' 11th Fed Cup title by a 3-0 score.
- 2010 CoCo Vandeweghe made her Fed Cup debut at age 18 in the 2010 World Group Final vs. defending champion Italy in San Diego. Vandeweghe, who lives in California, opened the tie against 2010 French Open champion Francesca Schiavone and lost 6-2, 6-4. Vandeweghe then faced Flavia Pennetta in the reverse singles match and lost 6-1, 6-2, giving the Italians their second straight Fed Cup title.
- 1995 Chanda Rubin made her Fed Cup debut in the 1995 World Group Final vs. Spain in Valencia, Spain. Rubin lost her first rubber to Conchita Martinez 7-5, 7-6(3) but bounced back and defeated Arantxa Sanchez-Vicario 1-6, 6-4, 6-4. Spain defeated the United States 3-2 to win the Fed Cup title.

AMERICANS IN FIFTH-AND-DECISIVE RUBBERS

The United States has found itself in a live doubles rubber 13 times since World Group format was instituted in 1995. The U.S. holds a 7-6 record, winning its last live doubles rubber over Belarus in the 2017 World Group Final to claim the overall title.

In the 2010 World Group Semifinal, Bethanie Mattek-Sands became the first player in U.S. Fed Cup history to win consecutive live Fed Cup matches on the final day of competition. With the U.S. trailing Russia 2-1, Mattek-Sands beat Ekaterina Makarova 6-4, 2-6, 6-3, in the fourth singles match of the tie to force the decisive double rubber. Mattek-Sands then partnered with Liezel Huber to beat Elena Dementieva and Alla Kudryavtseva 6-3, 6-1, to win the tie and clinch a spot in the 2010 final on U.S. soil in November.
